DR. R. W. WILLIAMS' PINK PILLS FOR PALE PEOPLE

First Presbyterian Church Now Has Three Pastors.

SERVICES WERE IMPRESSIVE

Picturesque and beautiful scene in the handsome edifice—eloquent sermon by Rev. Dr. Gregg—Constitutional Questions Asked and Answered. Rev. Dr. Radcliffe's Charge.

Impressive services marked the installation of Rev. T. De Witt Talmage as co-pastor with Revs. Byron Sunderland and Adolph Allen, of the First Presbyterian Church, in that ancient and handsome edifice last night.

The pulpit was so thickly planted with palms that their foliage completely shaded the crimson carpet. Chrysanthemums and other fall flowers were heaped about the pulpit and shed their soft perfume throughout the church. Everything seemed to harmonize with the golden legend that arched the pulpit with a semi-circle of gilt: "Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God Almighty."

By 6:30 o'clock a mass of people pressed against the doors of the church and reached the sanctuary in a few minutes. As the members of the church were admitted first, but everybody who came found a seat. The service in the organ began and after a few soft bars of the prelude had floated through the church Rev. Dr. Talmage entered, and passing down the aisle was welcomed by the choir. He took a seat at the right of the pulpit. As the last number of the prelude faded away all the electric lights were turned on and the chandeliers and wall bulbs never seemed to glow so brightly.

SCENE TO REMEMBER

The scene was a picturesque one. A forest of potted plants rustled and swayed, a multitude of fans fluttered and hundreds of programmes rattled in the hands of the congregation.

After organist Gabriel F. Johnson had translated one of the music-prayers of Haydn, Dr. Talmage, seated at the right of the pulpit, took a seat at the end of the second row of the right section. Mr. Talmage was not in the proceedings of installation, except by reference, and he only time his voice was heard was when making response to the constitutional questions put by Rev. Adolph Allen, moderator of the service.

Rev. Dr. Allen, as presiding officer, reviewed the history of the call of Dr. Talmage, and his acceptance of it. The officers of installation were seated in the pulpit. Rev. David Gregg occupying the center, Rev. Dr. Talmage to his left, and Rev. Dr. Bittinger to his right.

Rev. Dr. Hamilton made the prayer of invocation, closing with Lord's Prayer. Rev. Dr. Talmage, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, announced hymn No. 616, "Ere from the nation, Ye God on earth, our faith, one faith, one birth." The chorus of people sang this hymn as a unit, and with considerable vim. Psalm 133, "As the dew and rain," by the members and people. After the conclusion of the last service, "Because of the house of the Lord, our God, I will seek thee, O Lord, my Father, my Father, my Father." Rev. Dr. Hamilton followed with the reading of a Scripture lesson and offered a devout prayer, in which he reviewed the history of the church, and the word of God in its usefulness in leading men to Christian discharges.

STRANGE MAN IN THE CELLAR

Aged and Half-Witted Negro Made a Mistake in His Habitation.

The occupants of a house at the corner of Third and G streets northwest were startled about 9 o'clock last night by a series of strange noises which proceeded from the cellar. A neighbor had seen a colored man enter the place through the front cellar window, and so informed the inmates.

Wives went to the police that a burglar was in the house and Patrolman McNamee, of No. 6, was quickly on the scene. He discovered the man in the cellar and there found an aged and infirm colored man propped against the wall. He was taken into custody and sent to the police station. When questioned by Station Keeper Garner the old man said his name was Aaron Bland, seventy-four years of age, and that he lived by himself at a room at No. 1162 Sixteenth street northwest.

The negro was in his den and talked in broken sentences. He had clearly lost his way while looking for his son, who he said was in the West. He had been wandering about town all day. The old fellow entered the cellar at about 8 o'clock, and he said he came originally from Fauquier, Va. Mr. Garner used the telephone and requested No. 3 station to notify the old man's friends to send for him. He is a typical specimen of the old-time plantation negro.

DEFIES ARREST BY ANY ONE

Kills His Cousin and Arms Himself With a Winchester.

Albany, Ga., Oct. 24.—W. J. Ford, a prominent citizen of North Carolina, who shot and instantly killed at Sylvestor by his cousin, Dr. Ashton T. Ford, Tuesday night at 6 o'clock.

The trouble arose over W. J. Ford calling in another physician for his little daughter. This angered the cousin, and when the father went to Dr. Ford's office the latter drew his pistol and fired twice, one shot taking effect in the hand and the other in the head. W. J. Ford staggered out of the door and fell in a gutter near by.

Dr. Ford said he had shot and killed him with a heavy stick and he fired in self-defense. He at once armed himself with a Winchester rifle and, shutting himself in, defied arrest. Everybody's SHOE STORE

To-day, shelves are loaded with fall stock. We are anxious to fit the foot of every man, woman, miss and child that steps into the big Store. Fit them once, and we guarantee that we'll fit them the second time, and the third—make a regular customer of every one to whom we once sell a pair of shoes.

DICKINSON ON OTHER DONS

The Ex-Cabinet Official Expresses Himself Eloquently About Cuba.

If Not Recognized, There Should at Least Be a General and Enthusiastic Expression of Sympathy.

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 24.—Hon. Don M. Dickinson was asked yesterday if he knew the actual condition of the rebellion in Cuba, and whether, in his opinion, the Cuban revolutionists deserved the sympathy of their country.

Mr. Dickinson said that the talk of Spain about the domination of ignorant blacks on the island was absurd. He said that in the insurgent forces the whites outnumbered the blacks four to one, and declared that the whites of Cuba are in every way more advanced, progressive, civilized and enterprising than the Spanish.

The predominant influence in the insurgent forces, he said, now comes from men who are risking their lives, property, and everything they have for the cause of the Cuban people.

He explained in detail how Cuba has been the prey of Spain, of Spanish merchants, and of Spanish officials, and said that Cuba has been a vast, unexplored, and undeveloped country without hope except it escape from Spanish rule.

He said that the Cuban people are now in a state of great excitement, and that the United States did not owe Spain much consideration on the record, she having intrigued with France and England to keep Cuba in a state of war to fix the Alleghenies as our foundation.

"While we must maintain the laws of neutrality," Mr. Dickinson said, "yet the law of humanity is higher, and whether or not the United States recognizes the belligerency of the independence of Cuba, it is a duty to recognize the rights of the Cuban people in the interests of civilization to restrain the atrocities upon persons and property perpetrated in the island of Cuba."

He said that the Cuban people are now in a state of great excitement, and that the United States did not owe Spain much consideration on the record, she having intrigued with France and England to keep Cuba in a state of war to fix the Alleghenies as our foundation.

MADE TO WORK OVERTIME

Government Printing Office Employees Bitterly Complain.

The employees in the pressroom of the Government Printing Office are at present expressing much dissatisfaction because they are compelled to work two hours overtime each day in violation of the eight-hour law.

An order was issued on October 7 directing all those engaged in the press and printing to remain on duty until 6:30 o'clock. The general understanding at that time was that the period of extra service would cease at the expiration of two weeks. The inflexible was borne with comparative good nature, in view of its expected brief duration.

But when notice was given the first of this week that the existing system of working would continue for the next thirty days the humor of the situation disappeared and free expression was given to complaints. The chief ground of dissatisfaction is the undue amount of manual labor performed by the ladies employed in this department, and the manual inconvenience suffered by reason of being compelled to wait until 7 and 7:30 o'clock for dinner. In addition the ladies are required to perform the same work as the men, and are not given the same consideration.

The employees generally unite in expressing their dissatisfaction with the present system of working, and it is entirely too much of a good thing, and approaches too nearly that condition of existence depicted by Hood when there is no work.

"No blessed leisure for love or hope, But only time for tears."

None of the employees are given any option in the matter of working overtime, as the service without exception is made compulsory.

Many of them are physically incapable of standing the additional strain, but this is not taken into consideration by those who are in authority.

The Government cannot be denied that extra compensation is allowed for the extra work performed. A trifle less than one-half in addition to the regular rate of pay is given for the two hours overtime. But this is poor consolation to those who do not wish to do more than a day's work at a time.

The policy of those representing the Government in its attempt to ignore a widespread and just demand for a change in the conditions of labor is bitterly denounced. When ordinary mortals violate the laws they are promptly and severely punished. But the officials of the Government can flagrantly disregard equally stringent laws and be guaranteed immunity from punishment.

Any and every pretense and excuse can be distorted into the plea of "emergency," and, like charity, it is said to cover a multitude of sins. The Government is engaged in a book work, preparing for issuance the annual reports of the various executive departments.

Much inquiry is being made by the employees as to why a night shift is not put on the work of the pressroom, and the employment of capable workmen are out of the question. The Government is engaged in a book work, preparing for issuance the annual reports of the various executive departments.

But the changing of the steam-heating pipes and other improvements are being prosecuted at a rapid pace, and it is not beginning to show signs of completion.

COLLEGE BOYS SUFFER.

New Brunswick, Oct. 24.—Five college boys, a silver watch and about $500 in money were stolen from the Swarthmore College football team yesterday afternoon while they were playing on the field at Rutgers College.

The money had been put on the field in the Baltimore Gymnasium, leaving their other clothes, with all their valuables, in the locker room. When they returned to the field they found their money and watch stolen.

ON NEED OF A NEW CHIEF

Fish Commission Work Delayed by the President's Inaction.

MANY WANT THE POSITION

Dr. Capehart the Newest Aspirant for the Honor—He is Highly Indorsed and Is a Man of Practical Experience—Tarleton H. Bean Has Withdrawn.

President Cleveland, it is expected, will appoint a Fish Commissioner soon after his return from Atlanta. The work of the commission, except in the mere routine, is at a standstill, and will continue so till a commissioner is named. Acting Commissioner Gill said frankly more than a month ago that he should begin to work, but content himself with carrying forward to completion what was then under way and carrying it forward on established lines.

There are numerous applicants for the position—several more than have been made known generally, and about twenty have been published. Several have practically dropped out.

Among these may be considered Dr. Tarleton H. Bean, for several years assistant in charge of fish culture, and superintendent of the salt water aquarium in New York.

The candidates have been very active in presenting their own merits and the merits of their opponents. President Cleveland has had an opportunity to know fully the record of each. Dr. Bean has been shown to be a thoroughly capable man, and his own statement is now an appointive under Mayor Strong, Republican, in New York, and quite likely to go out with his administration. That is a long record for a man of his age, 55,000, with perquisites, here.

Dr. Capehart, it is expected, will present a record of notable ability as an executive here. He has been with the commission about fifteen years, but his labors have been mainly in the identification of fishes. A strong candidate, who has just been mentioned for the first time is Dr. W. R. Capehart, of Annapolis, near Edenton, N. C. He is largely engaged in the fish business and is personally acquainted with most of the commercial fish dealers along the Atlantic coast. He understands the commercial fish business of both coasts better probably than any other man mentioned in the list of candidates. He is a thoroughly capable man, and his own statement is now an appointive under Mayor Strong, Republican, in New York, and quite likely to go out with his administration. That is a long record for a man of his age, 55,000, with perquisites, here.

Dr. Capehart is one of the most admirably qualified men for Fish Commissioner to be found in the United States. His intellect is brilliant and his alertness and penetration remarkable. He is of lightning rapidity in seizing upon a situation, and he is a thorough business man, and a thoroughly capable man, and his own statement is now an appointive under Mayor Strong, Republican, in New York, and quite likely to go out with his administration.
